

November 21, 2025

DBA believes fee structures must reflect the financial pressures farmers face while still supporting essential animal health and food safety programs Wisconsinites rely on. We remain cautious about raising fees and urge alternative/shared funding options be prioritized to avoid placing additional burdens on the agricultural community.