

The WI Public Utility Holding Company Act (WPUHCA) underpins the ownership and development of utility infrastructure and business operations that deliver essential services to Wisconsin citizens. Modifications to the WPUHCA should be carefully developed and considered so that changes to the law are done in a way that insures services provided by utilities remain focused on the needs of Wisconsin utility customers.